

WOMEN'S GOLF DAY WELCOMES OVER 900 FACILITIES AT THE EVENT THIS YEAR TAKING PLACE ON JUNE 2, 2020

PGA MEMBERS CAN EARN MEMBER SERVICE REQUIREMENT CREDITS FOR PARTICIPATING IN WOMEN'S GOLF DAY ACTIVITIES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 20, 2020

WEST PALM BEACH, FL – Women's Golf Day (WGD) will be held June 2, 2020 at over 900 golf facilities around the globe. WGD is a four-hour experience where women and girls can experience the sport for the first time or where current players can play and engage with women that are interested in golf. PGA Professionals earn MSR credits through a variety of ways, including hosting events like Women's Golf Day and through educational opportunities. PGA pros must earn 54 MSR credits over a three-year cycle.

The first opportunity for PGA Professionals to earn MSR credits will occur at the PGA Show on Thursday, January 23 during a roundtable discussion about Women's Golf Day. PGA Professionals who participate will earn 1 MSR credit. The "Women's Golf Day Interactive Experience & Why it Works" seminar will be held at 9:15-10:00 a.m. in room W312C at the Orange County Convention Center. PGA Professionals whose facilities host WGD events will earn 2 MSR credits.

"This is a great opportunity for PGA Professionals to show their support of Women's Golf Day, while earning valuable MSR credits," said Elisa Gaudet, Founder of WGD.

ABOUT WOMEN'S GOLF DAY:

Women's Golf Day (WGD) is a single-day event scheduled the first Tuesday of every June to introduce new female participants to golf and celebrate existing players by joining them together irrespective of race, religion, language, ethnicity, or location. WGD has become a global movement and celebrates women and girls learning golf skills that last a lifetime and being part of a larger global community. WGD strives to Engage, Empower and Support women and girls through the event and platform. The one-day, four-hour event, has now taken place at more than 1,000 locations in 66 countries since its inception in 2016, and has introduced thousands of new golfers to the sport while transcending language, culture, religion, and race to celebrate golf, women, and community. WGD created an incredible global community in four years and has the support of almost every major golfing governing body and organization. It is the fastest growing female golf development initiative. WGD's primary hashtag, #WomensGolfDay, received more than 47 million global impressions to nearly 25 million people viewing WGD content. Women's Golf Day is unique, there is nothing like it in sports, a one-day sporting and community celebration event that unites women through golf across the globe for 24 hours straight transcending race, religion, language and geography.
